Postdoc Lunch Nir Shavit

Nir Shavit

ISTA

Host:

Nir's move from academia to entrepreneurship was driven by his interest in making cutting-edge AI research more accessible and efficient. In 2018, Nir Shavit co-founded Neural Magic, a company aimed at revolutionizing the way deep learning models are run by utilizing approaches found in computation in neural tissue such as locality and sparsity. Nir's journey from academia to founding Neural Magic is a clear example of how deep academic expertise can be translated into impactful entrepreneurial ventures.
